Publicity to the event:

ELUPEG will on (behalf of NexTrust) spread the information in the NexTrust network

EvoFenedex will make full use of all its media channels to inform, enthuse and activate parties to attend this event.

Costs:

- There will be no entrance fee (event is open to everyone, whether or not they are a member of evofenedex or not).
- Evofenedex will issue cost statements to NexTrust for all expenses involved except for the costs involved for the speakers
- Speakers are requested to issue cost statements within their own programs, as the evofenedex budget does not allow for third party funding, only for direct costs of evofenedex employees.
